

This brochure contains all the information needed for your child to attend the sessions for 4-H Day Camp this year. We are planning a great camp and we hope you are looking forward to your child attending.

Both beginning and experienced campers will enjoy the camping experience. Counselors will be assigned by age, so be sure to mark your child's age on the registration.

Please call if you have any questions.

The following will give you an overview of Camp @ The Fairgrounds in helping make your decision about sending your child to camp:

SUPERVISION: Extension Staff, Dean of Women/Men, Adult Chaperones, Full-Time Nurse, Camp Mom and trained Camp Counselors.

OPPORTUNITIES: Personal growth through involvement of campers in theme activities, group skills, responsibilities and decision making.

CAMP ACTIVITIES: Daily schedule includes recreation, kayaking, crafts, nature, citizenship and special evening activities.

MEALS: Menus and snacks will be prepackaged to meet daily food requirements.

CAMP LOCATION: For 2021, camp will be at the Jefferson County Fairgrounds.

ENROLLMENT: Return the registration with the camp fee by the due date. Additional information about what is required to attend camp will be sent to each camper after registration is received.

LIMITED CAMPSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE...

If you need monetary assistance to attend camp, please call the OSUE Office for an application for campership funds.

Campership applications are due on May 28.
