

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION MASTER GARDENER VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION

General Description

The Master Gardener Volunteer (MGV) role is to support OSU Extension, Jefferson & Harrison Counties in meeting the needs of our citizens in the area of consumer horticulture by assisting with educational programs, diagnosing plant problems, making cultural and pest management recommendations, and other various opportunities.

Specific Responsibilities:

- Answer consumer's telephone inquiries and assist office visitors with plant/insect samples for identification or diagnosis.
- Assist with establishing and maintaining demonstration gardens and/or public education projects at the Extension facility or project locations.
- Assist teachers, 4-H volunteers, non-profit organizations, government agencies, and/or children with gardening education projects in school or club settings.
- Interpret information from Extension bulletins and fact sheets for the general public.
- Distribute Extension information to the public at such events as garden center plant clinics, county fair, Home and Garden Shows, etc.
- Write articles for local newspapers and Extension newsletters.
- Assist with Extension educational programming, such as talks for garden clubs, Extension sponsored workshops, etc.
- Keep records of consumer contacts and volunteer activities.

Time Required

Volunteer hours may vary from week to week, will generally be needed during regular work hours, although some evening and weekend opportunities exist. A total of 50 hours must be donated during the intern year on approved county Master Gardener projects.

Qualifications

The MGV must show an interest in, enthusiasm for, and some knowledge of gardening. He/she must be able to communicate with the public by phone and deal courteously with visiting public and Extension program participants. He/she must be able to read, write and comprehend the information presented in the training sessions, and be able to communicate that information to the gardening public. He/she must provide his/her transportation to training and volunteer activities.

Location: County office and various locations around the county.

Support Provided

In addition to the Ohio MGV Manual, MGVs have at their disposal office reference materials and Internet resources to assist in answering questions and requests for information. If the MGV is unable to assist a consumer, questions and requests are referred to the Extension Educator or other appropriate staff.

Mentor

Erika Lyon, Agriculture and Natural Resources Extension Educator, will provide coordination, supervision and support to the MGVs. She will assign, review and evaluate volunteer activities.
